

One Page Budget Worksheet

For your Dexterity: see where the money really goes.

John says: A budget isn't a punishment. It's a map. Ten minutes with this page and you'll know where the gold pieces actually wander off to.

1. Money in (take-home, per month)

Source	Amount
Paycheck(s)
Side work / other
Total in

2. Must-pays (the same every month)

Bill	Amount	Due day
Rent or mortgage
Utilities (power, water, gas)
Phone and internet
Insurance (car, health, life, renters/home)
Car payment / transit
Minimum debt payments
Child care / school
Total must-pays

3. Flexible spending (changes month to month)

Category	Last month	This month's plan
Groceries
Eating out and coffee
Gas
Fun, hobbies, subscriptions
Clothes and personal care
Everything else
Total flexible

4. Pay yourself

Goal	Amount
Emergency fund
Extra debt payment
Retirement / investing
Total to you

The check: Total in – must-pays – flexible – pay yourself = _____. If it's below zero, trim the flexible rows first. A common guide: about 50% needs, 30% wants, 20% saving and extra debt payoff.
