

The Party Map

The "if something happens to me" organizer

John says: If something happens to you, your party shouldn't have to go treasure hunting. Draw them a map.

! Write where things are, not account numbers or passwords. Keep this somewhere safe and tell someone you trust where it is.

Who to call first

First call (name and number): _____

Second call (name and number): _____

Third call (name and number): _____

Life insurance

Company: _____

Agent (name and number): _____

Where the policy is kept: _____

Work benefits

Employer: _____

HR contact (name and number): _____

Bank and retirement accounts

Institution	Type (checking, savings, 401(k), IRA...)	Where statements are kept

Home and vehicles

Where the deed is kept: _____

Mortgage lender: _____

Vehicles, and where the titles are kept: _____

Will and estate documents

Where they are: _____

Attorney (name and number): _____

Bills on autopay

Bill	Paid from (account name, not the number)	About when each month

Digital life

Where the instructions for your password manager are kept: _____

Who knows where to find them: _____

Pets

Who will care for them: _____

Vet (name and number): _____

This map

Date last updated: _____

Where the original is kept: _____

Want help with this? Grab a seat at John's table.

calendly.com/thefinancialdm-proton/30min

The Financial DM • John, Licensed Term Life Agent

For educational purposes only. Not a quote, a recommendation, or legal or tax advice. Coverage details vary by policy and employer.